Award Plaque Nomination Rules

The following rules were updated and revised October 16, 2015

The Board of Directors of the Bulldog Club of Denver recommend to the membership of the Club that the annual awards be given to its members for the following 8 achievements, commencing with the period beginning January 1 and ending December 31 of each calendar year.

- 1. New Champions - To any member or members qualifying for the AKC Championship Certificate on any of their Bulldogs during the calendar year and receiving said certificate before the Annual Awards presentation.
- 2. New Grand Champions - To any member or members qualifying for the AKC GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP Certificate on any of their Bulldogs during the calendar year and receiving said certificate before the Annual Awards presentation shall be awarded a Grand Championship Plaque or plate.
- 3. Most Best in Shows - To any member or members whose Bulldog has gone Best in Show at an All Breed Show or Bulldog Specialty Show during the calendar year, and this excludes any Non-Regular Group such as Owner-Handler Division, etc. Best in Show.
- 4. Most Best of Breeds - To the member or members whose Bulldog has won the most Best of Breeds during the calendar year. If more than one Bulldog qualifies, the member whose dog has defeated the most Bulldogs while going on to win Best of Breed shall be the winner.
- 5. Most Best of Opposite Sex - To the member or members whose Bulldog has won the most Best of Opposite Sex awards during the calendar year. However, if more than one Bulldog qualify, the Bulldog which has defeated the most Bulldogs while going on to win Best of Opposite shall be the winner.
- 6. Most Grand Champions - The member or members who have won the most AKC GRAND Championship points on Bulldogs whether owned or co-owned by them during the calendar year shall be the winner.
- 7. Most AKC Championship Points - To the member or members who have won the most AKC Championship points on Bulldogs whether owned or co-owned by them during the calendar year shall be awarded the winner.
- 8. Breeder of the Year - The member who is the breeder of the most champions finished from their breeding during the calendar year shall be given the award.

Deadline for Applications is March 31 of each calendar year. Applications should be mailed to: Nancy Brown @ 29156 Summit Ranch Drive, Golden, CO 80401 or email nebmsu@gmail.com.

- A. All winners must have been entered in an AKC show.
- B. In cases where one Bulldog is jointly owned by two or more people, who are not members of the same family, each member shall receive individual credit for the achievements of that dog. EXAMPLE: Member Mrs. A and Mrs B jointly own Bulldog Y. Bulldog Y received a confirmed championship during the calendar year. Both Mrs A and Mrs B shall receive a championship plaque or plate.
- C. In the case of a tie, duplicate awards shall be given to each winner except as set forth above .
- D. All entries shall include a copy of the AKC Championship Certificate or AKC Grand Championship Certificate. All entries for awards shall include a copy of the AKC Individual Dog Award Record and Points Progression report or AKC Dogs Defeated Report available from the AKC website. The cost of this report shall be the responsibility of the member requesting awards.
- E. The person or persons tabulating entries shall give a complete list of winners to the club secretary and the club historian. The entries of all participants should accompany the secretary's list.
